Guadeloupe

It was not just a dream but a reality. The Seniors were told on the first day of school that their Senior trip would be outside the U.S. That sounded wonderful to a lot of people but where was the money coming from? With that question in mind but determined not to let it become a barrier, the Seniors went to work with $9,900 as their goal. Mrs. Miles, our advisor, was there to work and encourage and Pastor Hatmacher was around to counsel and clear the way for projects. We sold posters and citrus fruit, washed cars and baked, had skating parties and Slave Days. At the fall festival we sold Brunswick stew and hot dogs. Later we had a spaghetti supper. Was it worth it? After we returned from Guadeloupe, we decided it is always worth the effort to make a dream into a realty!

Jeffrey's metamorphosis.

"Chef Boy-Ar-Dee!"

"Hey, Mama Kizzie!"

SENIORS MAKE IT

The Beginning Of The End

The year flew by with so much to do that the Seniors weren't quite sure where the time went to. Along with college boards, term papers and exams, there was the Senior trip to Guadeloupe. Graduation pictures, caps and gowns, and announcements were ordered. It was also a time for looking back and realizing we were the first to walk this pathway from T.C.S. What tomorrow holds no one knows but we are facing it with apprehension and wonder and prayerful expectancy.

. . . HAS ARRIVED

"Love that accounting homework!"

The Juniors will be basking in the sunshine and warm sands of the Hawaiian Islands next year. Until then, we will be working diligently to gain the money we need for the trip. We will be following in the steps of the Seniors in many of our fund-raising activities, plus a few new ideas of our own. Any early donations will be greatly appreciated, (Ha Ha).

This year our Ring Banquet was held at the Le Chateau. We are all very proud of our new rings. Our speaker was Reverend Paul Hatmacher. We wound up the night with a trip to Gramp's and Granny's for ice cream.

We slaved over PSAT's early in our Junior year. They were difficult, but they helped to prepare us for the many college board tests that are to come.

Even though we are very involved in school activities, we always manage to find time out for some fun.

FRESHMEN

HORIZONS

The high school students experienced many new activities this year such as the drama classes and the Spiritual Emphasis Week retreat at Camp Ruthers. The SCA was formed and we had a column in the local newspaper called A Breeze From the Tornadoes. Student enthusiasm ran high as the year moved quickly by.

The National Junior Honor Society includes students from the 8th, 9th and 10th grades who maintain high standards in scholarship, leadership, character and citizenship. This year the NJHS had bi-weekly meetings. They participated in several projects, including food baskets for the needy at Christmas, caroling at the Medical Care Center and raising money to help have the gym painted.

The National Honor Society is comprised of Juniors and Seniors who are selected for their excellence in citizenship, scholarship, leadership, and character. NHS members sponsored several projects such as caroling for elderly shut-ins at Christmas and selling posters to raise money for NHS insignia to be donated to TCS. They also planned and sponsored the induction ceremony for new members in the spring.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

S.C.A. . . .

The SCA in it's first year, learned how difficult it was to be heard. The meetings were all about the same, a lot of discussion and no action. The SCA was limited as to how much they could accomplish. Many students voiced their grievances to the counsel. Crowded halls, long lunch lines, and the dress code, these were the main issues but were only discussed, as the counsel had no power to make changes. So we became, more or less, a group of people to color the background.

''I don't think that it was funny! '', says Rebecca.

The Fourth Annual Sports Banquet was held on May 19, 1979 at Eagle Eyrie Baptist Assembly. The guest speaker was Mr. Eddie Dobson, head soccer coach at Liberty Baptist College. The banquet started at 7:00 with the evening meal. After the meal, the speaker challenged the athletes with a stirring message. Everyone enjoyed the message very much but were anxious to find out who would receive the awards. And so, the evening started.
